

Setting the conditions for NATO and US Doctrine/Policy Change

These studies taken as a whole are part of a larger strategy to highlight the need for counter-/anti-corruption efforts to be integrated into existing policy/doctrine in the following areas: Planning, Operations, and Stabilisation.

JALLC NATO – Joint Analysis Lessons Learned Centre	Strategic “Counter- and Anti-Corruption: Theory and Practice from NATO Operations” (May 2013)
JCOA U.S. – Joint Coalition Operational Analysis	Operational “Operationalizing Counter-/Anti-Corruption” (November 2013)
CALL U.S. – Center for Army Lessons Learned	Tactical “Counter- and Anti-Corruption a Tactical Perspective” (Projected Completion – December 2013)